

Conditionals

Identify the type of conditional clauses and put the verbs in brackets in the correct form.

1. If I [to bring] the documents earlier last time, they [to fire] me.
2. But for your patience, we [not to be] allowed to participate.
3. You can't hand in your report until it [to be] completed.
4. If Dad [to be] a little more tolerant, he [to let] my sister date her professor.
5. After I [to graduate] from Georgia Tech, I [to start] looking for a well-paid job.
6. As soon as you [to come] back, you [to have] to start working.
7. I would [to save] his life if I [to be] a doctor.
8. Next time you [to print] the document, don't forget to add the header.
9. Let's do it before it [to be] too late!
10. I [to let] you know when I [to see] you at the conference.
11. What [to happen] if their president [to resign] five years ago?
12. In case we [to forget] to take the tickets, there [to be] an option to reschedule the flight.
13. I [to take] you there if I [to have] a car.
14. I [to take] you there when I [to buy] a car.
15. I will show up before the class [to start].
16. it [not to be] nice if I [to be] king?
17. I [not to pass] the exams last semester if I [not to prepare] so well.
18. I [not to pass] the exams last semester if I [to be] a lazy person.
19. I [not to pass] the exams next semester if I [not to prepare] well.
20. I [to pass] the exams next semester if I [to become] a genius now.