

Mood

Use the appropriate mood (and everything else) for the verbs in brackets. Indicate the mood (Ind / Sub I / Sub II / Imp). Be attentive with the asterisked items.

1. It is evident that he [not to want] to serve in the army.
2. It is required that the people [to leave] their bags in the locker.
3. The professor ordered that the students [to be] ready for the exam.
4. He was staring at her as if she [to be] a picture.
5. The patient was given the medicine lest she [to develop] complications.
6. The research suggests that the disease [to be caused] by a rare virus.
7. What would you prefer that the child [to do]?
8. You need to get some water, but [not to forget] to turn off the faucet.
9. The guests suggested that he [to go] to the bathroom and [to wash] himself.
10. I wish I [to be] friendlier with people.
11. Before it had been critical that the workers [to leave] the lever down.
12. I am not sure if I [to come] to this class tomorrow.
13. I will come to this class if I [to feel] like doing so.
14. It is important that the people [not to leave] the building until tomorrow.
15. [To go] to the pub tonight together, guys.
16. It would be nice if the temperature in the room [to drop] down to 80°F.
17. * He was holding his umbrella as though it [to rain].
18. If he [to keep] doing it, I'll kick him out of here.
19. I would be ashamed if I [not to pass] such an easy exam.
20. It is nice that you [to come] by now.